BRYCE AVARY THE ROCKET SUMMER

A band that I feel everyone should and probably will know soon is a band from Dallas, Texas, called OSO CLOSO (myspace.com/osoclo). They're a very original rock band with insanely good musicians. Take intelligent songwriting; flavor it with soulful vocals; lots of rock; incredible guitar playing; and a little bit of a Queen/Over The Rhine/Radiohead influence and you have Oso Closo. I'm slightly biased because the singer/pianist and I grew up together, and it doesn't hurt that he has a song about our friendship...
